Alexander Mazevski advises his clients in corporate, commercial, foundation and family law matters. His particular areas of expertise are conflict resolution and mediation. He also looks back on an international career in the life science and security sector, where he continues to be active in an entrepreneurial capacity. He therefore often acts as a sparring partner in corporate strategy matters for private foundations and their governing bodies.

Prior to founding VALFORD Attorneys, Alexander Mazevski worked as an attorney at PwC Legal in the M&A, Private Wealth and Family Business practice groups and before that at Schönherr Attorneys in the M&A department. He graduated in law from the University of Vienna and completed a postgraduate Master of Laws program at the University of Hamburg.

In addition to his legal education, Alexander Mazevski is currently completing his postgraduate studies in "Mediation and Conflict Management" at the Sigmund Freud University in Vienna.
